REMAINING S.C. SENATE REDISTRICTING PUBLIC HEARINGS

Columbia, S.C.-The Senate Judiciary Committee's Redistricting Subcommittee continues its public hearings to receive information concerning communities of interest around the State and interests to be considered in drawing State Senate and S.C. Congressional districts. In the last two weeks, the Subcommittee has visited eight locations in the Upstate, Midlands, and Lowcountry. Two more hearings will take place.

All public hearings will be held from 6:30-8:30 p.m. Here is the schedule:

- August 11, Conway Public Hearing, Horry-Georgetown Technical College
- August 12, Aiken Public Hearing, Aiken Technical College

These hearings will not be to propose plans. That opportunity will be available at a later time.

You may attend the public hearings either in person or by watching the live stream (<https://www.scstatehouse.gov/video/schedule.php>). You may give testimony in person or via Zoom, and you may sign up to give testimony using the forms available at the hearing location or via the website at <https://redistricting.scsenate.gov/contact.html>. Please submit any online forms by 4:00 pm on the day of the public hearing at which you wish to speak.

Please note that the information you provide to the subcommittee will become part of the public record.

Maps will be available online and at the hearings to help speakers identify specific areas they wish to discuss.

The subcommittee will have additional meetings following the public hearings. If you are not able to attend a public hearing, you may still submit information to the subcommittee by mail at P.O. Box 142, Columbia, S.C. 29202 or email at redistricting@scsenate.gov.
